Thursday, November 21, 3 to 5 p.m., Career Services

Are you exploring your career options outside of academia? This seminar will introduce you to the process of searching for opportunities. Main topics will include: 1) Assessing your skills, values, and interests, 2) Exploring your options, 3) Making connections and informational interviewing, 4) Creating appropriate application materials. Lunch will be served. Space is limited to the first 20 students, (event is offered again during the academic year).