TEA & TALK
FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS:
DECISION-MAKING

Wednesday, February 5, 12:30 to 1:15 p.m.
Carl A. Fields Center, 1985 Meeting Room

Have you been in a situation where you have trouble making up your mind? Have you wondered how to sort out your priorities and set up goals that matter? In this interactive session, you will learn effective decision-making to make various professional and personal choices and goal-setting skills. Co-sponsored by Career Services, the University Health Services, and the Davis International Center. Healthy lunch (and tea!) served.
