Meet admissions representatives from the Medical School for International Health!

The mission of the Medical School for International Health (MSIH) is to address the need for medical education that focuses on the interface between global health and community and preventive medicine. Gather information and ask questions to learn more about the admissions process, deadlines and requirements.

Frist Campus Center
Table #7
Thursday, October 2
10:30 am-2:30 pm

http://careerservices.princeton.edu