Making Meaningful Connections for graduate students

Thursday, November 4 • 7 to 8 p.m.
Old Graduate College, Coffee House

The reality is over 70% of all job seekers will learn about an opportunity and land a job through a connection made via an informal conversation (aka: networking). Learn more about the resources available such as the TigerNet Alumni Directory and LinkedIn, and how to use them to connect with Princeton alumni and professionals in positions beyond the academy. Sign-ups are encouraged but walk-ins are also welcome. Sign up with Olivia omartel@princeton.edu

Sponsored by The Graduate School and Office of Career Services.
